

Iowa Property Assessment Appeal Board

Appeal Form Instructions

This form is for filing a paper appeal with the Property Assessment Appeal Board (PAAB).

- You can file an appeal electronically using PAAB's eFile system. To learn about filing an appeal electronically visit <https://paab.iowa.gov>.

When to Appeal

- If the board of review adjourns on or before May 31, file the appeal on or before June 20.
- If the board of review adjourns after May 31, file the appeal within 20 calendar days of the adjournment date.
 - If June 20th or the 20th day after board of review adjournment falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, you must file the appeal on the next available business day.
- You must make sure your appeal is timely filed. To avoid problems, don't wait until the last day. The filing deadline is statutory and cannot be extended. Read Iowa Code § 441.37A for more information.

What to File

- The appeal form (2 pages).
- Evidence to support your appeal can be filed with the appeal form, but also can be filed later. When PAAB schedules your hearing or written consideration, the scheduling notice will have a deadline and instructions for submitting exhibits.
